

Undergraduate Sustainability Photographer Fall 2022

Summary:

The Undergraduate Sustainability Photographer will support Penn Sustainability with visual collateral related to the Climate and Sustainability Action Plan 3.0 (CSAP 3.0) and other important initiatives and programs. Interns will work closely with the Sustainability Office to document programs and provide high-quality photographs for use in annual reporting, website, social media, and other communications planning.

Requirements:

- Experience taking high quality photos
- Ability to be on time for events and meet deadlines
- Flexibility to work special events
- Strong interpersonal skills with ability to work well independently
- Familiarity with sustainability issues
- Effective written and verbal communication
- Familiarity with sustainability community and programs at Penn preferred

Potential projects/Responsibilities:

- Documenting events for programs related to Climate Week, Move-In Green, and others; capturing student initiatives and other sustainability related initiatives across campus
- Building a photography cache for reporting and communications
- Organizing photos and other visual collateral
- Supporting with the development of marketing materials, as needed

Details:

1 position available for Fall 2022

$14.00 per hour / up to 5 hours per week

Applications due Wednesday, March 30 and will be reviewed on a rolling basis

Students must have work-study award capable of meeting the required hours for the position.

Contact Information:

Interested students should send a cover letter and resume/CV to Natalie Walker at

Sustainability@upenn.edu