A European or North American consumer wastes almost 220lbs of food annually. Reducing food waste by only 20% would provide enough food to feed 25 MILLION PEOPLE.

That’s the equivalent of the current population of AUSTRALIA.